THE

CHIMES

JANUARY 2012

Chapelwood United Methodist Church

Parties! Traveling! Gifts to buy! Places to go! Fighting the traffic in the malls! Shopping! Long lines at gift return. Cooking and preparing meals! Dishes by the bushel! Relatives!

As the great philosopher Charlie Brown would say, “ARGGGHHH!!!”

Whew! I get tired just thinking about it and typing it. I have said this for years and this one is no different. We get sucked up in the whirlwind of the holidays about Thanksgiving and get spit out of the tornado the early part of January. We look at each other and say, “What just happened? Where has it all gone?”

As I look back at 2011, I realize that we have done so much this year. It was truly a wonderful Jubilee Year. We have seen many great things happen in the Children and Youth. We have seen Sunday School increases and worship increases. We have begun a new Sunday School Class. We have had a net increase in membership. The Choir and Hand Chimes have graced us with beautiful music and anthems.

The different groups in the church have been active. The Missions Committee has had two successful Yard Sales and the ministries that have been done from that are just beyond belief. The Men, Women, and the Circles have enjoyed banner years. It’s just all too good!!

There is so much more that could be said. I am sure I have forgotten more than I have listed. All this being said, I can only imagine what 2012 is going to be like. The Spirit that permeates the church and its ministries, the excitement of people as they welcome new visitors to worship and other activities, the prospect of new things being planned is so exciting. I have a great feeling that 2012 is going to be the year that Chapelwood UMC goes to the next level in its life.

In order for this to happen it will take each of us to do a little more than our part. It is going to take everyone to be part of the ministries of the church. No more sitting back and saying, “I already did my part, it’s time for others to step up!” Unless you have ceased breathing, you still have a part to play in the church. If you are new in the church, this is a great time to find a place and go to work.

I am really excited about 2012! Now that the holiday season is over and we are settled back into a routine lets channel some of that energy toward making this year even better than last.

God Bless each of you for all that you have done and continue to bless us for the things we are about to accomplish. You are an AWESOME church!!

Yours In Christ,

OUR STEWARDSHIP
